A206 901 472

CONTINUATION:

Supervisor Mercado and Agent Jewell, arrived and questioned the two passengers. Both claimed to be illegally in the United States. The driver, identified as Brittany Sheneen CANTU, claimed to be a United States Citizen.

Trooper Arriaga told agents, after receiving consent to search the vehicle, he found one of the illegal aliens concealed in the floorboards between the front seats and middle row of the van. The second illegal alien was found hidden in the compartment behind the third row of seats, where the spare tire would normally be stored.

Both CANTU, and the smuggled aliens were transported to the Falfurrias Border Patrol Station.

PRINCIPAL'S STATEMENT:

Brittany Sheneen CANTU was read her rights. She stated she was willing to provide a statement without the presence of an attorney.

CANTU told agents that after the DPS Trooper stopped her, she had a bad feeling so she told the Trooper she had people hidden in the van. She admitted that normally she hires people to smuggled illegal aliens for her, but on this occasion, she had to do it herself. Additionally, she had a steel plate fabricated to fit in place of the stock cardboard piece that lays over the spare tire. This steel plate was made specifically to conceal bodies so it would be harder for law enforcement to find people hidden there. CANTU stated she has made between $20,000 and $40,000 smuggling aliens. CANTU told agents she knew how long a person would be able to stand being in the middle floorboard compartment, because she has tested it out herself for approximately an hour and half.

NOTE: CANTU was the principle in a 2014 Administrative Smuggling Case where she was transporting two illegal aliens in the trunk of a Ford Mustang. She was caught at the Sarita Checkpoint and was not charged with alien smuggling at the time.

MATERIAL WITNESSES' STATEMENTS:

Both material witnesses were read their rights. Both agreed to provide statements without the presence of an attorney.

1- Antonio Ayala-Gomez, a citizen of Mexico, told agents he was charged $5,000 (USD) to be smuggled to San Antonio, Texas. After illegally crossing the Rio Grande River, he was taken to two different houses. At the second house, a van came to pick him up. Ayala was put into the spare tire compartment. He stated he could not identify the driver of the van. Ayala told agents it was very hard to breathe in the compartment.

2- Alfredo Garcia-Molina, a citizen of Mexico, was charged $4,000 (USD) to be smuggled into the United States. After illegally crossing the river, a vehicle arrived and transported him to a hotel where he stayed by himself for 2 days. After 2 days, a van arrived, driven by an unknown man, who put him in a compartment in the floorboard behind the front seats. Garcia stated there was already a man in the back compartment behind the seats when he boarded the van. The van departed the hotel and arrived at a house, where he exited the compartment for a moment while the vehicle was stopped. While momentarily out of his compartment, he was able to see a woman exit the house and board the driver's seat of the van. The woman and the two men then departed and were stopped by the police later. Garcia identified CANTU in a photo lineup as the driver of the van.
